Transhumanism and Beyond

The word 'Transhumanism' was invented by biologist Julian Huxley in 1957, who defined it as "man remaining man, but transcending himself, by realizing new possibilities of and for his human nature." Transhumanists want to overcome human limits by extending their lifespan, augmenting their intelligence, perpetually increasing their knowledge, achieving complete control over their personality, and gaining the ability to leave the planet and even travel interdimensionally. They want to reach these goals through reason, science, and technology. Sounds good? Read on!

Homo sapiens as we know it is indubitably becoming extinct. The ruling elite have noticed that human beings are becoming too difficult to control. Humanity's exponential growth in both individuality and consciousness is threatening the whole hierarchy of the world of illusion. The solution is two-fold. Through eugenics, they are getting rid of the most difficult races to control (e.g. Blacks, Natives) and through transhumanism, they are creating a hybridised humanity (hubrids) linked to a common artificial mind. Just like ants, this new so-called Homo evolutis will be based on castes, each with its own physical attributes determined by a person's social role. In fact, this corresponds to devolution. The contact with the soul (the Supreme Being within each individual) will be definitely excluded through the genetic modification of human cellular DNA. How can the elite and their demonic masters manage such a substantial transformation? They do so through a multi-faceted series of secret programs. We are superficially aware of some of these, but most of us do not realise the extent of this research and its long-term repercussions. Let us look at the most important of these programs.

1. Aerial Spraying – Chemtrails are chemicals sprayed in the sky by airplanes. Used since the fifties, they became popular in the nineties. Today, chembombs cover larger surfaces, to spread even farther various weapons of mass destruction. There are two kinds.

- Climatic/Geological Weapons – Chemtrails contain 26 toxic metals. Officially, they are used to put a damper on global warming. Unofficially, they become climatic weapons (droughts, hurricanes, torrential rains) and/or geological weapons (landslides, volcanic eruptions, earthquakes), when used in conjunction with technologies such as HAARP (High Frequency Active Auroral Program).

- Biological Weapons – Chemtrails contain 300 different GMOs (bacteria, yeasts, viruses), dried human blood, DNA-modifying enzymes, parasites (nematodes), living fibres (Morgellons), etc. Officially, they are used to immunize the masses covertly. Unofficially, they serve as physiological weapons (infertility, decreased immunity, cancer, DNA modification, etc.) and psychological weapons (depression, anxiety, hallucination, decreased concentration, etc.). Some chemtrails actually contain indestructible living fibres that crawl under the skin, reproduce themselves, and morph into crystal and genetically-modified (GM) insects and worms. When these parasites have totally invaded the body of a person, she is told that she suffers from Morgellons disease. Among a long list of symptoms, here are a few: abnormal blood cells, permanently open sores and bumps, luminous hair and skin, external growth of animated coloured fibres, brain and personality changes, and much more.

In fact, any person who is exposed to chemtrails experiences such an invasion, even if her body shows no signs or symptoms. Invaded by microscopic inorganic, but conscious, GM fibres, our bodies have become living laboratories. We are being transformed into hybrids with unknown properties. It is impossible to avoid this, if chemtrails are sprayed in our area. These strange fibres have even been found inside paper currency!

2. GM Food – GMOs have been proven to cause several problems – sterility, modification of organs, cancers, allergies, etc. (Personocratia's Booklet 7) Once digested, they go into the blood and modify cellular DNA, thus accelerating the genetic transformation of humanity. The elite started with the genetic modification of corn and soy, two crucial types of human food. The next ones are alfalfa (main food for dairy cows), rice, and wheat. A scary prospect!

3. Vaccination – Vaccines have evolved tremendously during the last decade. For example, recombinant vector vaccines contain viruses that are used as carriers to introduce new genes in human cells. What perfect tool to permanently alter the human genome! Other vaccines are used to inject synthetic nano implants that are programmed to insert themselves inside the human brain and link it to the GIG – the elite’s Global Information Grid. Was this the reason for the false H1N1 pandemic in 2009? The OMS is already announcing the high probability of major pandemics in the coming years. How can such events be predicted if they are not purposely planned? When will we finally stop trusting official medical authorities?

4. Nanotechnology – It transforms matter at the atomic level, which allows scientists to invent new materials that are 11 times harder than diamond, to link living cells with electronic components, to modify DNA, and to produce mini robots that are smaller than a red blood cell and can clean body toxins and repair tissues. All great! However, the hidden face of nanotechnology is more disturbing. For example, a network of nanosatellites presently orbits the earth. Swarms of such ‘smart dust’ form a system of artificial intelligence called Skynet, which is linked to a huge brain called ‘Mother’. The latter can accumulate information and take independent decisions, such as ordering drones to destroy space-ships or meteorites - or humans?

5. EM (electromagnetic) Waves – Chemtrails and chembombs transform the air into plasma saturated with metallic nanoparticles that facilitate the transmission of scalar and electromagnetic (EM) waves. These are emitted by 18 HAARP installations around the world. EM waves can affect the health and behaviour of targeted populations. Human DNA corresponds to a special vibrational signature. By using carrier waves – scalar or EM – the elite can modify at a distance the DNA of targeted individuals, race, or genders. That is why it encourages the use of smart meters and, especially, cell phones, even in poor countries. Also, nanometals found in chemtrails are absorbed by the human body, which gets changed into a two-legged antenna that remains perpetually ‘plugged’ into the elite’s vibrational web. In this way, the human body is ready to receive instructions and go through genetic modifications.

6. Scalar Weapons – More powerful than EM waves, scalar waves travel through matter instantaneously. Both the aliens and the elite use them frequently for seemingly-impossible tasks: crashed airplanes, collapsed buildings (9/11), sudden deaths, strange climatic (Hurricane Katrina) or geological events (Haiti’s earthquake in 2010 and Japan’s tsunami in 2011), weird epidemics, strange behaviour, and holograms (real-looking 3D apparitions). Among other things, they can create the popular crop circles found in fields, destroy alien spacecraft, and disintegrate meteorite (Russia, 2013).

7. Synthetic Telepathy – Used during many recent wars to influence thoughts and emotions at a distance, synthetic telepathy or SSSS (Silent Sound Spread Spectrum, Booklet 7) is also utilised in super-stores such as Walmart or Tesco to increase sales. When combined with the Internet, HAARP, telecommunication towers, smart meters, and the 13,000 satellites now orbiting the planet, it forms an enormous and invisible prison for the human mind. Synthetic telepathy’s electromagnetic web has one single purpose: controlling humanity. And it works as long as individuals remain in the low vibrations of fear.

8. GRIN Cloning – The first human clone (identical genetic copy) was born in 1927. Since then, the elite has greatly improved its technique, thanks to GRIN technologies – Genetics, Robotics, artificial Intelligence, and Nanotechnology. These are used on a large scale in secret laboratories. The popular Avatar 2045 Project proposes to gradually replace human bodies by GM, immortal, perfect avatars with an unlimited artificial intelligence. That is what some call Singularity, the illusory equivalent of the idessic transformation, but with false avatars, false soul, and false immortality. Beneath the scientific lustre of such a project lies hidden the ugly face of hard-core eugenics and its true purpose: the reduction of humanity to two species, a small minority of superhumans (masters) and a large majority of halflings (slaves).

So, transhumanism is taking place on a grand scale right now – and you and I are part of the experiment! It allows the elite and their demonic masters to wage a permanent war against humanity, 24/7. With such advanced technologies, it is easy to imagine that they will end up winning this multi-faceted battle. Wrong!

The real solution is not technological, but vibrational.

I must become aware that the highest frequency lies hidden inside each human being. It is called a “soul” (the Supreme Being within each individual). Human souls differ from those of other species. They are able to grow from life to life until they can unite with willing, fully conscious human bodies. Once I understand my soul’s potential, I can surrender my free will to it and let it guide me efficiently towards its long-standing plan: the union of body and soul. ⇒

Two Distinct Species

Since my soul, this individualized version of the Supreme Being, lies inside me, everything happening right now on the planet is my creation. This includes the world elite, good and bad aliens, demons and angels, and the appalling technologies now being deployed on Earth to destroy most of humanity and to genetically modify those who do not perish. As unbelievable as it may seem, that is exactly what I need to accomplish the next step. What if I can trust my soul, its long-term plan and its powerful action on my willing body? By letting it guide my actions at all times, I allow the highest vibrations of spirit to permeate my body and I become invincible!

In 2008, Richard Seed, a physicist heavily involved in human cloning research admitted: “We are going to become gods, period. If you don’t like it, get off!” Well, I am getting off. I refuse to listen to my ego and its desire for an illusory, easy-to-get power. I will not sell my soul at any cost. I don’t want to become an improved caterpillar. I aim at becoming who I really am – an unlimited butterfly!
